*From the Forgotten Zine Library

This special insert is Paper No. 9 in a series of discussions published by The Metropolitan Complex that circulate as free publications.

Printed on the occasion of Ireland's participation at the 51st Venice Biennale, commissioned by Sarah Glennie (12 June - 2 October 2005). Presented in the garden of the Scuola di San Pasquale in the Castello district, Venice as part of Sarah Pierce's project Monk's Garden.

Ciaran Walsh is an artist who lives in Dublin. He is co-founder of the Forgotten Zine Library. For more information please contact forgotten_zine@graffiti.net

The Metropolitan Complex is a Dublin-based project by Sarah Pierce. It organizes a social practice around activities such as exhibitions, talks and publications. These structures often open up to the personal and the incidental.
